Heavy Fine For Hitting An Officer

George Mahalca of Schoonmaker avenue, was fined $15.00, the costs amounting to $2.00 additional and $2.00 doctor bill in police court this morning and he paid the bill.

This penalty was administered because George swallowed too much liquid and started out to have a good time. He was seen going along the street by an officer who told him to go home. He refused, got into an altercation with a man. was knocked down and when arrested, resisted the officer. His wife too, took a hand in the affray and the officer had to call an assistant. George then bit one of the men on the hand and fought all the way to the police station. He admitted being drunk and had nothing to say about the fine.

James O'Brian was arrested for carrying concealed weapons. He explained that he had just bought the revolver, and was on his way home. His story looked plausible and he was released.

John Faban forfeited $10.00 for non appearanse on a charge of drunkenness and disorderly conduct.

Alexander Malanen was fined $5.00 and costs for drunkenness, or five days to street labor. He is in jail waiting to be paid out.

Martin Wassil was fined for being drunk.

Geo. Padis, Jim Lutas, Nick Lavetas, Jim Santos and George Pedas were each fined $1.00 and costs for being implicated in throwing a bottle on the street.

Local Lad Sent To Reformatory

Joe Widycswoski, the fifteen year old boy, who was convicted of committing local roberies, was sentenced Saturday morning in juvenile court at Greensburg, to the training school at Morganza. The lad received his sentence without the least sign of emotion, and today will be sent to that institution to start his sentence. The boy has broken into a number of stores and at his trial he made a confession of being guilty of many of the crimes of which he was accused. The family resides on Third street and Joe is the oldest of seven children.

LIGONIER WILL BE FAR FAMED AND HISTORICAL

Next Saturday, July 3rd, this county will witness one of the most historical events in recent years.

An immense gathering, the largest ever assembled in the historic town of Ligonier, is promised on that date when the Sons of the American Revolution of Western Pennsylvania unveil a monument in that pretty little mountain town in memory of the pioneers who used the fort there in their successful effort to gain this end of the state from the Indians. The large granite shaft is to be placed today or tomorrow and all will be in readiness for the dedication when the time comes.

In this noted old fort were assembled more men who later became famous in American history than at any time before or since the struggles of those days. Among the fighters who held conferences there were Col. George Washington, at that time an adviser to Gen. John Forbes, the leader of the forces in this part of the state, Col. Henry Boquet, who erected the blockhouse at the Point; Col. John Armstrong and many others. Because the fort was the headquarters for these men, as well as the base for supplies for the campaign against the Indians and French, the Sons of the Revolution believe it is time that it was being made prominent historically.

The large bronze tablet which is to be imbedde in the monument has arrived and will be put in position about the middle of the week. This metal slab tells of the history of the fort, gives the names of the noted leaders of the English forces and describes the battles fought in the district, these being the ones which decided that the English, instead of the Indians, were to be supreme throughout the state. The monument is in the public spuare in Ligonier, about 500 feet from the ramparts of the fort, which still stand. the spot being one of the most prominent in the town.

The gift of the shaft to the town probably will be made by Thomas Stephen Brown, an attorney, who is president of the State Society, Sons of the American Revolution. The committee in charge is composed of Attorney Edward E. Robbins as chairman, R. W. Guthrie and O. S. Decker, both of Pittsburgh. Senator Robbins is one of Westmoreland county's noted historians and in order to preserve these early landmarks, he is putting forth great effort. He will be one of the leading speakers Saturday and his talk on these early events in the history of the county will be well worth hearing.

While the list of speakers has not been completed, it is announced that George W. Guthrie, ambassador to Japan, and former Secretary of State P. C. Knox will attend and address the gathering. Mr. Guthrie already is a member of the society of this tate and Mr. Knox is eligible for membership.

Members of the organization from all of the towns of Western Pennsylvania have signified their intentions of being present at the exercises, and several of the societies will attend in a body. Invitations to the Daughters of the American Revolution and other patriotic organizations are being accepted in large numbers.

Those who motor up will go by way of the Lincoln highway, the former Pittsburgh and Philadelphia pike. A large number have announced their intention of going in machines. Special music is being arranged for and the school children will take part in the dedication.

Many are expected to be there from Monessen and vicinity. It is believed that the largest crowd in the history of Ligonier will be present at this event, and every possible arrangement is being made to afford accommodations.

Monessen Outings At Eldora Park

This is practically Monessen's week at Eldora park, no less than four picnics having been scheduled from this town during the week. The first and largest one will occur tomorrow when the St. Leonard's church will hold their outing. Special car service will be inaugurated for the occasion to take care of the children, and all amusements will be free to them during the day. In the afternoon euchre and dancing will be the feature for the older people and the same program will be carried out at night.

On Wednesday evening the Hebrew Ladies' Aid society of this city will hold their annual outing and a large crowd is expected from along the valley. A dance will be the feature in the evening. The First Baptist Sunday school of this city will hold their anual picnic at the park Friday of this week and special cars will be provided to convey the large crowds to the park.

The special cars for the children attending the St. Leonard's picnic tomorrow will leave Eighth street at 9 o'clock and return at 7 o'clock in the evening.

Thursday afternoon and evening the Ladies Aid of the Presbyterian church will hold their annual outing.

Carnival Here For Weeks Engagement

The K. G. Barkoot World's Greatest Shows which will exhibit in Monessen all of this week on the lot at Wireton, arrived here Sunday noon on their own special train of twenty-two cars, and immediately began unloading their wagons and equipment and the work of erecting the tents and other paraphernalia for the opening of the shows this afternoon and early today.

This is one of the largest and best carnival companies traveling, and has the reputation of carrying only the most refined and highest class attractions, there being nothing permitted on the grounds to offend or embarass any person. Special attention is given to the entertainment and care of the ladies and children.

Dan Ryan Shuts Out Westinghouse

The fast Westinghouse base ball team of East Pittsburgh was the second victim of the newly organized Independent club of this city at the Page grounds Saturday. In one of the best games ever witnessed on the local grounds, the visitors went down to defeat by a score of 2 to 0. During the first half of the game, neither side made much headway, but in the fifth inning after Hamilton had made his way to third base, Wilson gave the signal for the hit and run and dumping the ball along the first base line, Hamilton was able to cross the pan with the first run. Standich, the new third baseman, was responsible for the next run with a long drive in center field.

Dan Ryan occupied the mound for the locals and with his mixture of fast and slow balls had the Westinghouse team at his mercy at all times. Frank Guder got into the game for a few innings and worked well behind the bat. Savage also was tried out in left field and brought down a couple of drives. Next Saturday the fast Brushton team of the Allegheny county league will be the attraction and on Monday afternoon, Charleroi.

A Fearless Official

Gov. Slaton has retired from official life in Georgia. It was a noble and courageous thing he did, when despite the clamor of Georgia mobs for a contrary ruling, he commuted the life sentence of Leo M. Frank to life imprisonment. He has proclaimed to the world that not all Georgia officials can be intimidated and swerved from their duty by mob violence. Bravely assuming the responsibility that others had shirked, he preserved unstained the reputation of a great Commonwealth and recued it from eternal shame.

No duty of a Chief Executive is more difficult and yet more thankless than that of standing between the community and its unreasoning prejudices. Gov. Slaton knew full well that in signing the order for the commutation of Frank's sentence, he was signing his own political death warrant. But he did not flinch. "Feeling as I do about this case," he said. "I would be a murderer if I allowed this man to hang. It means that I must live in obscurity the rest of my days, but I would rather be plowing in a field than to feel for the rest of my life that I had a man's blood on my hands."

Events has justified his prediction. Scarcely had his decision been announced when threatening crowds began to gather. Reserve police had to be called out. Saloons were closed and bank was secretly removed to another part of the state. Public opinion is as unpopular today as Governor Slaton among a certain population.

But for every Georgian that disapproves the Governor's decision, there are a thousand unprejudiced Americans who approve most heartily. Throughout the United States in every walk of life, there are men who agree that the grave doubts that exist as to Frank's guilt—to say nothing of the manner of the trial—entitled him to clemency Some day, when calm good sense prevails again in Georgia, Governor Slaton may receive in his own State the honor and praise that is due him for fearlessly doing his duty.

A Commendable Work

Work has been started to improve the Sixth street park A large measure of this enterprise reverts to the Board of Trade. No more commendable movement on behalf of the public has been started and the very fact that the funds to carry forward this improvement will largely come through the Board of Trade will again demonstrate the great need of this body of volunteer citizens in our community.

For some years there has been talk of improving the parks, but some yap would always get up and start an argument by asking this question, "To whom do the parks belong?"

Could any man ask a more foolish question? Hardly. What's the difference to the man who toils six long days in the mill, when on the seventh he comes to sit down in a nice, shady spot in the heart of the town, whether the East Side Land company has given the town a deed for the park ground?

Little does he care whether there is a deed on record or not. All he cares about is the fact that the improvements have been made and that the public has a right to enjoy an open place for breathing purposes.

This spot, though somewhat hilly and rough at the present time, can be made beautiful, and we warrant that a year hence it will present an entirely different appearance. So much for the enterprise, the thrift and civic interest of the men responsible for this movement.

IN SUCH PAIN WOMAN CRIED

Suffered Everything Until Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Florence, So. Dakota.—"I used to be very sick every month with bearing down pains and backache, and had headache a good deal of the time and very little appetite. The pains were so bad that I used to sit right down on the floor and cry, because it hurt me so and I could not do any work at those times. An old woman advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I got a bottle. I felt better the next month so I took three more bottles of it and got well so I could work all the time. I hope every woman who suffers like I did will try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. P. W. JANSENG, Box 8, Allyn, Wash

Why will women continue to suffer day in and day out or drag out a sickly, half-hearted existence, missing three-fourths of the joy of living, when they can find health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?

ATTACKS DYNAMITE GRAND JURY

Los Angeles, Calif., June 26—Representations will be made to the Superior Court here on Monday in the interest of Milton A. Schmidt and David Caplan, alleged accomplices o fthe MsNamaras in the dynamiting cases, that certain members of the grand jury which indicted the accused men had been selected or suggested by an official of the Merchants' and Manufacturers' association.

Of a sensational nature is the material already made public. With the motion to dismiss the indictments for murder returned against Schmidt and Caplan, there has been filed with the court a letter alleged to have been written by F. J. Zoehandler, secretary of the Merchants and Manufacturers, to Earl Rogers, a lawyer, who was then interested in the prosecution of the McNamaras and their confederates. This letter contains a list of grand jurymen who were "with" the association as against labor unions. Three of the men thus O Ked by the manufacturers' secretary finally served on the grand jury which indicted Schmidt and Caplan.

The publication of the letter has caused no little stir among workingmen of the west. Zeehandler when shown a copy of the letter stated that he recalled having written it. He declared the letter was written in answer to a query of Attorney Robberts, relative to what he knew concerning the men drawn for grand jury duty. Rogers who was an attorney for the manufacturers, became a special assistant District Attorney when the grand jury was impanneled and the investigation began into the dynamiting of the Los Angeles Times building.

TO HEAR LIBEL SUIT AGAINST EVANGELIST

Hazelton Pa., June 26—As an aftermath of the recent religious revival in Hazelton, there will open here on Monday a hearing on the $50,000 slander suit brought against Rev. Dr. Henry W. Stough, the evangelist, by a prominent citizen whom he flayed from the pulpit. Three arbitrators have been appointed to take testimony in the suit of Councilman William J. Cullen. Cullen brought the suit after Dr. Stough was alleged to have stated from his tabernacle that Cullen, Max Friedlander, a liquor dealer, John Firro, a politician and Alderman Henry Jacobs, a brewer, were responsible for vice conditions in this city. Dr. Stough will be defended by prominent attorneys, and the suit is expected to develop an earnest fight.

One Church Approves Of Equal Suffrage

Women, the congregations willing, from now on, for the first time in the history of the Presbyterian church in the United States, may serve on the board of deacons.

Since the founding of the church, women never have been permitted to hold office of this character, but before the end of the present year, it is expected that a number of congregations of the Pittsburgh Presbytery will take a vote upon whether or not deaconesses are to sit on the board of deacons with equal rights with the male members.

This is made possible by the recent annuoncement made by officers of the last Presbyterian General Assembly, that the tabulation of the vote taken last year in 292 presbyteries shows that 249 of them cast an overwhelming ballot in favor of extending a membership in the board of deacons to women.

For a number of years women members of the congregation have had equal voting rights, but never have they been permitted to sit as members of the board of elders, trustees, the session or the deacons. The duties of the latter board deal for the most part with the administration of the charities and general relief work of the congregation. It is upon its order that many thousands of dollars are expended each year.

In the churches of the Pittsburgh district, two elections will be necessary, according to local ministers, in many instances, before the actual election of deaconesses. This is because many congregations have taken advantage of an option in the church regulation which permits them to delegate the duties normally belonging to the deacons either to the trustees or the session.

The first election, therefore, will be held to determine whether or not the church should have a board of deacons; the second as to whether women should sit on the board, and the third the actual election of the board at which the nomination of all members of the church regardless of sex would be considered.

Prominent Chicago Preacher

Dr. Oneal, a Real Platform Orator, to Speak at Chautauqua.

THE Rev. Dr. Ernest Wray Oneal is the pastor of the great M. E. church at Joliet, Ill. He is a man of decided personality, a brilliant orator and for many years has sustained the unqualified approval of the Redpath Lyceum Bureau.

He will tour the Redpath-Brockway Chautauqua Circuit during the coming season and in a few places will renew acquaintances which he made on a former Lyceum tour through this section. There is perhaps no man on the lecture platform who will be more thoroughly welcome on a second visit than Dr. Oneal. He is one of the most virile of lecturers and a forceful thinker

Judges May File Nomination Papers

Judicial candidates may now file their nomination papers in the state of Pennsylvania. Any signatures procured prior to June 25th, are not valid according to law. The bench in this state this year will likely be chosen on wet and dry lines. This political condition will prevail more so on account of the attitude of some jurists on the right of a judge to put a county dry according to the Brooks law. Judge Porter made Lawrence county dry and kept it dry regardless of the fact that his decisions on the liquor questions were carried to higher courts

So far as is known the fight in this county will be between Judge A. D. McConnell and George Shaw. Whether or not any other candidates will enter the race is yet to be determined. Curtis H. Gregg was talked of also Charles Crowell, who opposed Judge Doty and lost the fight, but neither of the latter announcements have been officially made. Judges will be elected on the non-partisan ballot. The fight in this county promises to be particularly aggressive.
